A group of five ducks came around the last bend grouped together but a lone pink duck broke from the pack and like Secretariat had a dominating final kick to easily be the first duck to cross the finish line.

the water. It was duck #50.

motorists of their presence on our roads. Join the safe sharing of the roads throughout the state by all parties concerned.

An update and annual report was presented by Bill Mitchell from the Pendleton County Development Office (PCDO). Mitchell also presented the members of his Pendleton County Youth Leadership Program (PCYLP). The purpose of this program, affiliated with our school system, is to bring youth, specifically sophomores from our High School, into the leadership program and mentor them to better understand the dynamic of civic engagement and its importance to the community. This understanding will enable these youth to become leaders not only among their peer group but also in the community at large. Further, the program offers participants the opportunity to meet with professionals from many different career paths to understand what they do, how they came to their profession and how they view leadership. This in turn will help these students to discover and understand key character traits of leaders and why they are important to leadership.

As part of their learning and growth experience, the PCYLP got an opportunity to observe the county government in action. Further, they, along with Mr. Mitchell, invited all to attend the Youth Leadership Forum on May 22 at the Falmouth School Center. This Forum, chaired by Molly Burgemeir and moderated by Grace Beebe, both members of PCYLP, is intended to set four goals for the county and city governments to work toward. The goals are for the community and will be decided on by the members of the PCYLP in conjunction with participants from community businesses, educators from the schools and everyday citizens. It is hoped that these goals will provide solid direction for the county and city governments as they plan for the future.

Mitchell's update and annual report of his work with PCDO was a 15-20 page report detailing his efforts to provide job opportunities through grants, education, marketing and demographic trends analysis. One of the highlights was the Klee Property Pre-development Planning project. This is 38 acres of Klee property south of Falmouth at the intersection of U.S. 27 and KY 22. Research was reviewed regarding the best approach to capture developer interest in buying and redeveloping the parcel for commercial and institutional use.

Other highlights included a report on the progress of the Pendleton County/Falmouth Joint Gateway Community and Technical College. This project transitioned from research and feasibility to establishing classes and a permanent presence of Gateway in the community. For spring and fall, 2014, high school enrollment in classes was 65 students each semester. For spring 2015 enrollment for high school classes increased to 99 students. The adult program has yet to get firmly established, though it is very much needed as businesses are anxious to find qualified workers from the area. It is the goal of this project to enroll both adults and youth into proper training programs and to equip them with the new skills needed in our economy. In short, there are jobs in the area, but presently too few qualified workers to fill them. For more information about how you can get the training or retraining you need to get to work contact Doug Beard at the Kentucky Career Center in Falmouth 859-654-3325.

Northern Kentucky Area Development District's Emily Carnahan presented the Fair Housing Resolutions to the court that are required to secure a Community Development Block Grant for the construction of the new ambulance facility. A motion for Judge Fields to sign the resolutions was put forward and approved. Details of the resolutions will be published in The Falmouth Outlook.

In other business, an agreement was approved by the court for Joe Rockhead Properties to provide lawn care for the Justice Center. The Fiscal Court committees were established and approved followed by some discussion regarding the details of their function. A $2,500 donation for sponsorship of the Pendleton County Youth Fair was approved. An alarm contract with Simplex-Grinnell was approved for the Justice Center. In an effort to reduce the cost of payroll preparation for all Fiscal Court employees it was agreed to outsource the work. Payroll Partners was approved for this task.

The presentation by Judge Fields of the 2015-16 budget was provided to the court for due consideration and continued review by the court. No vote was required at this time. Finally, all transfers and bills were approved.

Tellers

driving the AA, the owner often thought about what business would work best there. He settled on the idea of a restaurant on the thinking that everyone's got to eat. Food being a common need.

The name Tellers came from the fact that a bank had been the prior business in the building. Like the old UKB, Tellers offers drive thru service. Something not available anywhere between Maysville and Alexandria, a stretch of 50 miles plus.

Plans are in the works to set up an event for each month for as long as weather permits. Look for these to be advertised in The Falmouth Outlook.

There's inside dining available as well as outside dining at the four pavilions with picnic tables set up in the back of the restaurant. The tables there were built by the Bracken County FFA. This area provides a peaceful resting place with shade and a smoking area, since the inside is smoke free. It's a great stopover for families sharing a meal or motorcyclists out for a ride.

Plans are in the works to set up an event for each month for as long as weather permits. Look for these to be advertised in The Falmouth Outlook.

A Mother's Day Story

By Shannon Turner-Muirheid

The American dream is based on building a family, having children of our own. At the young age of 19 years old, I was diagnosed with an infertility disorder that prevented me from having a child without the assistance of infertility treatments. Over the years, I endured nine surgeries to attempt to reverse my infertility issues and all nine surgeries failed. I looked to God for answers and never lost hope praying that one day my dream of having a child would come true.

In 2003, I met my husband who loved and accepted me as I am. We were married in 2004. My husband and I spent the first 4 years of marriage being aunt and uncle to my friend's children. We even tried adoption and the 2 little boys were adopted, while we were completing the classes. I saw that my husband would make an excellent father someday. We went to my check up together in 2006, and my fertility specialist told us to write a letter to the Madeleine Gordon Gift of Life Foundation explaining our story and our dream to become parents.

Madeleine Gordon herself suffered from infertility and never achieved her dream of becoming a mother. Instead of becoming bitter, she realized the financial toll it takes on couples to obtain fertility treatments. Ohio and the Ohio Insurance Department offer nothing written to define "infertility services," and the code that discusses these services is open to interpretation and generally limited to $2,000. Those with another medical condition or medically related problem, such as endometriosis, are not eligible. Neither Kentucky nor Indiana currently has laws providing coverage for infertility services.

Madeleine Gordon attended a religious service where the congregation was urged to do something in life for which they have passion. On her 50th birthday party she decided to kick off the fundraiser asking for foundation donations instead of gifts. On this day of celebration began the Gordon Gift of Life Foundation.

It took a year before my husband and I received a call stating we were selected to participate in the program. The foundation covered one third of the cost of IVF. I stayed positive the entire time. We had churches around the world praying for us. On October 2, 2007, we received a positive pregnancy test. On June 19, 2008 our healthy son Luke was born. I call Madeleine Gordon my fairy Godmother. Her Foundation has helped 53 couples in the tri state area achieve their dream of becoming parents. The Foundation continues as a passionate commitment to helping couples where there has been despair and disappointment. It continues to help these couples meet the financial demands and realize the dream for baby and family.

When Mother's Day approaches each year I am reminded every year how blessed I am to have my son. I am reminded there are still amazing people in the world who take their tragedy and use it to make a difference.

MASON

Helping Mason

Three-year-old Mason needs the help of this generous community to raise enough money to purchase a wheelchair accessible van. Being born with a rare deformity called Septic Optic Dysplasia, he is blind, in a wheelchair, non verbal, developmentally delayed (6 to 9 months), autistic, sensory disorder, a rare form of diabetes, thyroid and hormone issues.

Born in September of 2011, he spent the first few months of his life in the NICU, and is still in and out of the hospital frequently. He requires 24-hour care and will for the rest of his life.

His mother is single and he has a five-year-old sister named Rylee. Because of the difficulty of meeting Mason's needs, his mother has a hard time finding daycare for him so she can work. She loses jobs frequently.

Mason is on several medications and requires emergency injections that insurance doesn't cover. The goal is to raise enough funds to provide him with a safe living environment, that is wheelchair accessible and holds his therapy equipment.

Even a $5 donation would be amazing. Or if you can't give, please share this with others. If this could go viral the money could be raised to help this child and to help this family survive.

Imagine this being your son, nephew, or grandson and knowing he needs things that will cost thousands of dollars. Remember April is Autism Awareness month.

Baltimore mother could save this nation

By Glenn Mollette

Three cheers for the Baltimore mommy who was slapping and whipping the heck out of her son. Mommy Toya Graham saw her 16-year-old son Michael in the rioting crowd with a hoodie and a mask this past week and immediately went to him and took him off the street. She should be America's poster mommy this Mother's day for parenting.

Kids in this country are starving for a mommy and a daddy to step up to the plate and be real parents. As much as ever before the youth of America need to be loved, mentored, tutored through school, time with loving parents and then a good kick to the backside every now and then.

My mother slapped my face once. She slapped me hard enough that I honestly don't remember what I sassed her about. She took me out to the peach tree and whipped me with a peach tree limb (switch) on more than one occasion. My daddy gave me the belt more than once. Honestly, these are not my fond family memories.

However, they were on the scene. They weren't missing in action. They were at home being parents. They cared enough about me to try to drive me in the right direction.

I regret every spanking I gave my two sons. I wish I could go back and undo every swat I ever gave them on the rear end. I never enjoyed that. However, they both finished school, never have been arrested and both are serving our country today in the military. We had some tough times like all families do but God by his grace gave me enough strength and wherewithal to stay with my family and stay with my boys.

Taking responsibility for your actions

Dear Editor,
To the residents of Pendleton County as a constitutionally elected constable here in our Commonwealth, sworn to uphold not only the laws of the land but, also the laws of our creator, I am morally and spiritually obligated to inform you of a recent event having taken place here in Pendleton County.

On Saturday, April 11, 2015 I took one of my grandsons, Bronson Keiten Ormes, on a turkey hunt on my farm.

This young man harvested his very first wild turkey around 11 a.m., a male turkey with a visible beard less than six inches in length, four to be precise!

Before moving the bird, we filled out a harvest log, took a lot of photos, and celebrated this special event in his (and my life also) life.

Upon returning to the house to proudly show Maw Maw, we took more pictures and telechecked his harvest.

Those of you that are turkey hunters know what's wrong with this picture. As I found out on Sunday morning at New Hope Church of Christ that unfortunately the youth turkey hunt was held on April 4 and 5.

After services I immediately called Sgt. Patrick Brannen, area supervisor for the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources and I informed him that I had broken the law and that I should be held accountable for my violation. I had the phone on speaker mode so that Bronson could listen in.

Sgt. Brannen informed me that he would notify our Pendleton County Fish and Wildlife officer Scott Horn.

On Monday morning Officer Horn called and advised me that he had spoken twice on Sunday with Sgt. Brannen and was heading to the Honorable Jeff Dean's office to further discuss the situation. I told Officer Horn that I was accountable for my actions and didn't want or would I accept "special treatment."

Later on Monday Officer Horn met me on my property and explained in detail that this violation could not be "swept under the rug." I agreed, and again stated that I was guilty and that I was ready to "take my lumps."

Officer Horn issued me a citation for "illegal take/pursue deer/wild turkey" violation code 09166, statute/ordinance KRS 150.390(1). The fine for my violation is $100, the amount of court cost is $153.

I thank Sgt. Brannen, Officer Scott Horn, and our County Attorney Jeff Dean for doing their jobs.

Had I taken the time to obtain and thoroughly read the KDFW Spring Hunting

Looking back I know they needed even more than what I gave but I am so glad I gave everything I did.

During her childhood our youngest daughter would occasionally threaten that she was calling social services on us. This was usually due to our insistence that she do some homework, clean her room a little or just go to bed. It was amusing but we encouraged her to go ahead if she thought she could find a better deal. She backtracked on that threat.

Like Toya Graham moms and dads are the answer to many of America's problems. We must step up to the plate and be adults. Take responsibility for our families welfare, education and what they are doing. And when necessary go to the warzone like Mommy Graham and take action in order to save our children and this nation.

Guide I would have avoided this event entirely. My fault, I am accountable for my actions as is everyone reading this letter. I broke God's law because He strongly advises all people everywhere to obey His commandments as well as the government authority which we all live under.

To my Creator I have acknowledged my sin(s) against Him, confessed them and have repented of them (to repent is to turn 180 degrees from any wrong doing or behavior).

To all my "neighbors," everyone who lives within Pendleton County I make this misdeed known, and sincerely apologize and ask for your forgiveness also.

I will attend the monthly law enforcement training and business meeting held at The Kentucky Constable Association, Inc., Headquarters in Versailles, Kentucky.

I am going to advise the president of the association, and the Board of Directors of my offense, and willingly accept any actions taken against me, even if they recommend that I resign/retire, I will willingly accept and abide by their decision.

Humbly and respectfully submitted to the citizens of the Commonwealth and especially to those of you here in Pendleton County!

Col. Michael Doughtery Sr.

Many people waived at our group as they drove past, some stopped and thanked the boys for their service, some

A big, tough heart

By Daris Howard

Milton spoke strongly to his family. "We will not stop for anything except another equipment breakdown!"

Milton was a tough, old farmer, known for a no-nonsense attitude and for running a tight ship, and that spring hadn't started out well. Just when it was time to start planting potatoes, the rains came and threw everything a couple of weeks behind. In addition, they were having a lot of trouble. Their equipment was getting old, and they had only begun planting potatoes when the chain on the planter broke. It took almost an hour to fix it. They started again, but hadn't made even one time up the field when one of the furrows snapped. That didn't take too long to fix, but they had again just started when one of the tires on the planter went flat.

Milton's children knew the best thing to do at this point was to just try to avoid their dad. He was in a sour mood. The oldest son, David, was happy to have the assignment to take the tire to the repair shop to get it fixed. That kept him away from his father for a short time.

Though it wasn't close to noon yet, Milton told everyone to get some lunch and to be prepared to work steadily until after dark, because once they got going they weren't going to stop. Everyone scattered before he could change his mind. But as soon as David brought the tire back, everyone was summoned, and the planting began again.

They planted for a while, and then went back to load the planter. They had just started when the belt on the machine filling the planter popped loose.

Milton was not about to let it stop them. He turned to David. "Get the potato fork and start filling the planter by hand while I get the tools to fix the belt."

The thought of the back breaking work of forking potatoes into the planter was almost more than David could bear, but he was not about to argue. He shoveled until the sweat poured down his face, and he finished just about the same time Milton completed the repair on the belt.

They were soon planting again, but it wasn't long before something else broke down. That was how things went all day. They would make some progress only to have something else break, and though Milton was keeping his frustration under control, everyone could tell that he was reaching the boiling point.

When it came time for dinner, he told everyone to grab a bite to eat whenever they could, because they weren't stopping. They continued on through the evening, and as the sun was just going down, Milton suddenly brought the equipment to a halt. An audible groan could be heard from everyone, sure that there was another breakdown. Milton wouldn't stop for anything else.

Milton yelled to David, "Get me a shovel!"

The only thing David could think of that a shovel would be needed for was if the potatoes had jammed up in the planter mechanism. He was sure it would be his own miserable job to have to dig them out. He ran across the field to the pickup, grabbed a shovel, and ran back.

Milton took the shovel and walked around in front of the tractor. When he did, a mother and father killdeer, birds that nest on the ground, started going crazy, trying to draw him away. But Milton was undeterred.

Then everyone watched something they would never forget. This rough, old farmer scooped up the little killdeer nest onto the shovel and carried it over to the ditch bank at the end of the field. He gently set the nest down, and then came back to his tractor, climbed aboard, and away they went again at a furious pace.

Everyone there smiled in disbelief, because, for the first time in their lives, they had seen something besides a breakdown that Milton would stop for.

Football team tackles trash

Dear Editor,
The Pendleton County High School football Team and Boosters picked up garbage on Sunday, April 12, 2015. We picked up a ten mile stretch along Hwy. 17, starting at the radio station at the top of Hwy. 27 and ending at the Kenton County line. There were 26 football players and 15 adults picking up trash, it took us approximately 2 1/2 - 3 hours. We divided our group up into six smaller groups and putting them in six different areas along Hwy. 17 so we would be able to better utilize the size of our group vs. the area we had to cover. We picked up a total of 52 bags of trash, a couple five gallon buckets, a mailbox, and a few road signs. And unfortunately we came upon some discarded needles.

Many people waved at our group as they drove past, some stopped and thanked the boys for their service, some

Five miles of litter

Dear Editor,
The Butler Homemakers picked up five miles of litter on Hwy. 159 and we had nine workers.

We picked up twenty bags of litter, but it is sad that on the way back home someone had already thrown out more litter almost by the bags.

Board

He asked the Board for their help in generating the necessary revenue.

Nordheim was concerned about the addition of administrative positions. She stated that any administrative positions should be discussed and voted on by the Board. She felt they should be on the Action Agenda and viewable in the minutes of the meeting.

"These discussion should be made during the Board meeting no matter how painful," said Nordheim. "I would rather see funds go back to the teachers instead of the administration. It is important to have more teachers so classes can be smaller and easier to manage."

Superintendent Strong once again stated that extra revenue would still be needed to accommodate the proposed amendment.

"I believe that the staffing is adequate for students. You can't cut all these other things to accommodate teachers," said Superintendent Strong. "You can cut whatever you want but what needs to be done is not going to go away. It's eventually going to end up in someone's lap. There's nobody in this school system who doesn't work hard everyday. It takes all the people to make the school go. I respect the Board and I'm going to do whatever you want me to do but you're going to have to make cuts. You're going to need revenue down the road and you're going to have to raise it somehow."

After a lengthy discussion and back and forth debate over the amended proposal, it was passed by a 3-1 vote. Board members Elmer Utz, Jodi Bertram and Shawn Nordheim voted yes while Tony Spence voted no.

A discussion was held over the first reading of the Board Meeting Agenda Policy. Jodi Bertram proposed that discussion items for the agenda should be able to be added four days prior to a meeting through the chairperson or superintendent. Board Attorney Don Ruberg suggested that any changes first be approved by the Kentucky School Board Association (KSBA) since Pendleton County subscribes to their policy service. By making any changes to the time frame of agenda items they would be taking control away from the Board chairperson and possibly be causing an open meeting violation. It was stated that Board members should not be getting together, proposing changes, or taking any kind of action without first making formal requests.

"We are all elected," said Bertram. "Why shouldn't we have the right to include something that we want to discuss to the agenda at any time?"

Proposed changes will be sent to KSBA for approval and a second reading will take place at the next Board meeting.

In the approval of RFQ for legal services, Bertram made a motion to postpone the decision until July so the Board would have all of its members. A replacement Board member is being sought for the vacancy left by Mark Ross and his untimely passing. The motion was seconded by Nordheim and passed.

The Board went into Executive Session to discuss the appointment of an interim Board attorney. The request for a new Board attorney was made at the last meeting by Nordheim. Bertram said long-time Attorney Don Ruberg was too expensive. Utz was concerned that he made comments on non-legal issues. Nordheim also expressed these same concerns. After meeting in Executive Session late into the night, no action was taken on the hiring of an interim attorney.

The Board did however reconsider the motion to postpone the approval of RFQ for legal services. The original motion was voted on and approved.

Other Board news and happenings at the meeting included:

A moment of silence was held for Board Vice-Chairman Mark Ross. Flowers were placed in front of his position at the table in remembrance of him.

PCHS Principal Chad Simms talked about the happenings at the high school. He discussed student testing results, college and career readiness, upcoming end of the year events and other amazing things happening at the school. "I'm blessed to be the principal at PCHS," said Simms. "There are great things happening. It's been an amazing year and I thank the teachers, students, and district for their support." Members of FFA performed a song for the Board and audience members.

In the Great News section of the meeting, students were recognized for their achievements. Jared Whitney and Andrew Wright received 3rd place at the Northern Kentucky Region Science and Engineering Fair in the area of Behavioral & Social Sciences. Andrew Hicks (1st), Allison Redden (2nd) and Avery Booth (3rd) were winners in the 2015 Conservation District Writing Contest. Lianna Haubersch (1st), Samarra Morgan (2nd), Ella Partin (3rd) and Ellie Mason (4th) were winners in the 2015 Conservation District Art Contest. Annalisse Klaber and Sophea Dalton were selected to the Northern Kentucky Middle Schools All-Tournament Team. Cody Sullivan was named to the Northern Kentucky Middle Schools All-Tournament Team. Makayla Bishop was selected to the 38th District All-Tournament Team. The 10th Region Girls Coaches Association selected Ladycats Makayla Bishop and McKayla Manor as members of the All-Region Team. Three boys' basketball teams won district titles this season - Freshmen, Junior Varsity, and Varsity. Dontaie Allen was named 38th District Tourney Most Valuable Player and selected to the All-Tournament Team. Hunter Wood and Michael Antrobus were also named to the All-Tournament Team. All 10th Region Honors went to Michael Antrobus who was named to the 2nd team and Hunter Wood who was named Honorable Mention. Coach Keaton Belcher was named 10th Region Coach of the Year in his first season. Lucidious Witt, PCHS student, was selected as the recipient of a Student Leadership Award. Sharp Middle School Art teacher Ms. Lauren Elliott was awarded the Golden Apple Award.

Amy Razor made a presentation on "Closing the Achievement Gap" that included a video and statistics on education and the areas that effect student learning.

Valerie Trapp talked about the Whiz Kid Tutoring Program held at the Further Falmouth Center. The program provides one on one assistance to students who need extra help with education. Trapp discussed the difference the program is making and its plans to expand in the future. She explained her passion for helping students and thanked everyone who has assisted with the program.

Dave Shipp addressed the Board about audience comments at the last meeting and KSBA Guidelines. He referenced his letter that was printed in The Falmouth Outlook and read parts from it. Shipp remarked that he respects the opinions of others and supports free speech. He said that Board members are entitled to their own opinions and that he trusts Board member Nordheim and the decisions she makes.

Courtney Moore thanked the Board for the opportunity to serve as the first student Board member and delivered a great parting speech. She was presented a clock as a keepsake for the time she served.

The Board approved:

- The 2015 Community Education Grant.
- The Summer Food Service Program. This program offers meals to children 18 years of age and younger at no cost during summer break. Ways to reach more kids for the program was discussed.

- The Cooperative Agreement between the Board of Education/Recreation Commission/City of Falmouth/Pendleton Fiscal Court for summer recreation sports.

- The Memorandum of Understanding with the Brighton Center for the Teen Outreach Program.

- Crawford Insurance as the Insurance Broker/Agent of Record.

- Heritage Bank for Depository Bids

- Kelley, Galloway, Smith, Goolsby, PSC for auditor services for one year.

A special Board meeting was held Monday, May 4 to discuss the Amended District Section 7 Staffing Requests and the reallocation of district funds and to discuss the Second Reading of the Board Meeting Agenda Policy.

RELIGION

BUTLER METHODIST

The Lord is my shepherd, we know that verse and stanza from the Bible by heart, but did you ever really think about what it says to you? There is no place the sheep wanders that the shepherd will not lead it back home. The grace is offered to you.

Are you thinking about VBS yet? Well it will be taking place here at Butler on July 26, so mark your calendars now.

Ethan Wright will be speaking to the UMM group on May 21 here and the ladies will be serving a lunch.

On May 30 it will be the Annual Movie in the Park in Butler, combined efforts of ministries from Butler UMC, Butler Baptist, and Butler Christian.

Please pray for the people of Nepal, Boston, Daryl Mullins, Shelia's cousin, Gary's sister Shirley, Pops, Mary Ann, Rick Mayes, Betty Bay, and Brian's mother.

CHAPEL OF PRAISE

Our morning message was preached from Zechariah 14.

The highlight of the message was on the second advent of the Lord. Redeemed and unredeemed alike know something about the first advent of the Lord. We refer to it as the Christmas story.

When Jesus returns during the second advent He will not come as a lowly baby born in a stable and as a lamb lead to the slaughter.

This time He will return as King of kings and Lord of lords. He will be riding on a white horse that symbolizes His Kingship, Lordship, His power and authority.

He will set up an earthly kingdom where man will experience peace for one thousand years; this is known as the kingdom age.

Many marvelous things are in store for planet earth, as well as perennial blessings when Jesus returns.

FALMOUTH BAPTIST

What preparations are you making for leaving this world? That's a question based on scripture found in Luke 16, beginning at verse 19. This is where Jesus tells about the rich man and the beggar. We must remember that death is certain. There are two modes of living - there are rich and there are poor. We need to learn to be content no matter what the circumstances. There are two ways to die. We will either die in the faith with Christ, or we will die without Christ. We must remember that there are two eternal destinations, heaven and hell. Now is the time to work on those eternal preparations!

Bro. Cohen, his lovely wife Angie, and several of our senior adults had a great week in Myrtle Beach, SC at Jubilee. We give thanks to God for their safe travels and happy times together.

FALMOUTH CHRISTIAN
"God Paid Your Ransom" Remember that your

Heavenly Father to whom you pray has no favorites when He judges. He will judge you with perfect justice for everything you do. So act in reverent fear of Him from now on until you get to heaven. God paid a ransom to save you from the impossible road to heaven. The ransom He paid was not gold or silver. He paid for you with the precious lifeblood of Christ, the sinless, spotless Lamb of God. Please pray our country becomes a Christian Nation.

Ladies night out with Katie, 6 p.m., Friday, May 8.

Go to church Sunday.

FIRST BAPTIST

Greetings! We were blessed by Mike Whaley bringing our special music. Bro. Harry's message, "Your Measure of Faith," was taken from Romans. We have all been given a certain measure of faith. If you don't use your faith, you will lose it. We need to work everyday at growing our faith. The more you depend on God the more your faith will grow.

As our prayer list grows, so should our prayers. Pray for the lost, the sick, those who have lost loved ones, our military, our community, our country and those harmed by earthquakes.

Since we have resumed Sunday evening services at 6 p.m. we have had great music and sermons. Our youth group with leader, Abram Crozier, also meets at this time. Come out and join us.

"Her children arise and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her..."

Proverbs 31:28

"Faith is not knowing what the future holds, but knowing who holds the future!"

HARVEST COMMUNITY

Believing in Jesus is the only way to heaven, because He alone died for our sins and made us right before God. Living His way may not be popular, but it is true and right. Thank God there is one way!

Dates to remember: 5 p.m., May 9 Ladies' Banquet hosted by the men at the Creekside Pavilion. 8 a.m., May 16 Men's meeting/breakfast. May 23-24 youth retreat. May 31 picnic at the Creekside Pavilion immediately following morning worship.

Come to the throne of was from Hebrews 4:16. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace,

that we may obtain mercy,

Prayer has a very im-

Christians and even those who aren't. Prayer is where we get out vigor and hap-

We come with confidence

God will hear us through

Let us come at any time

Cecil Jones inducted into the Coach's Boys Basketball 12th Region Hall of Fame

By Thornton E. Daugherty

Cecil Jones was a 1957 graduate of Knot High School.

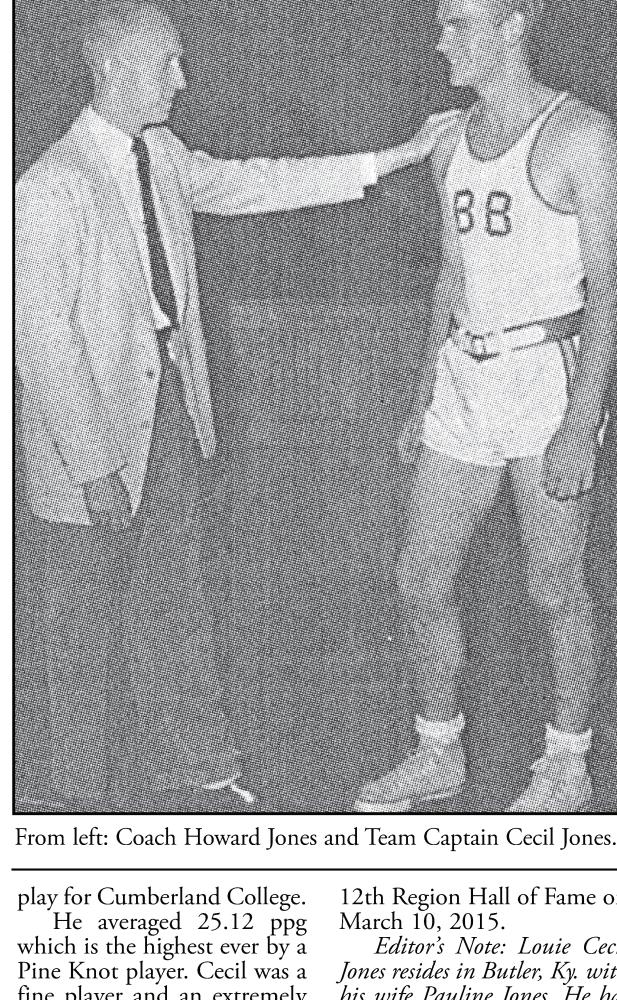

Cecil Jones, a 6'2" forward, had many traits similar to King Kelly Coleman. He was a two year starter but played quite a bit as a sophomore.

Cecil, in his junior year, averaged 14 ppg and double figure rebounding in leading PK to 10 wins after the school had only won 14 games in the previous six seasons prior to the coming of Coach Howard Jones in the 1955-56 season.

As a senior, Cecil blossomed. In an era where the game was very rough, he learned to hook both left and right while taking the pass while moving across the hub. There was contact on every shot, but the referees let most of them go. He still could make the shot. He also had an excellent one handed push shot out of either corner. He was an excellent free throw shooter and an excellent rebounder because of his boxing out ability and his work ethic.

He scored 61 points in one game his senior year, which is still the record for our county. He led PKHS to their first 20 wins season.

Cecil made all-district tourney his senior year and turned down a scholarship to play for Cumberland College.

He averaged 25.12 ppg which is the highest ever by a Pine Knot player. Cecil was a fine player and an extremely hard worker.

Cecil was inducted into The Coach's Boys Basketball

12th Region Hall of Fame on March 10, 2015.

Editor's Note: Louie Cecil Jones resides in Butler, Ky. with his wife Pauline Jones. He has three children - Louie "Chip" Jones, Chris L. Jones and Brandi Jones.

PC Tennis has strong first round at Region

Each school in regional tennis tournament can enter two singles and two double teams per gender to compete for a regional crown.

Pendleton entered the full contingent and saw a good opening day of regional tennis action as six of the eight entries won their match and continued on to second round action.

With only eight doubles teams out of twenty-seven seeded, the Pendleton County team of David Franz and Garrett Marshall were seeded 6th.

They should some opening nerves in their first set against the Bellevue team but took control of the match and won 6-2, 6-1. They moved on to play Conrad/Conley from Mason County but lost in the second round.

Mike Dewald and Dillon Feltner also won their opening match 6-1, 6-4 over Streigle/Johnson from Newport Central Catholic before falling to one of the top 4 seeded doubles team. The Bourbon County duo of Cooper/Keding won 6-1, 6-1.

In girls' doubles' action, Chyann Utz/Heather Rick picked up a victory in their opening match over Schroer/Gallenstien from St. Patrick, 6-1, 6-1. They fell to the #1 seeded doubles team from Campbell County in the second round, Pangburn/Sebastian 6-0, 6-0.

tenberg, had a tough draw versus Montgomery County's #1 seed and fell 6-0, 6-1.

Ethan Buck, #1 singles for the Wildcats, dominated his first round match with Schrader of Augusta, 6-0, 6-1 but fell in the second round.

Christian Rick picked up a 6-0, 6-0 victory after his opponent was disqualified but ran up against the #1 seed of the tournament in the second round where his tournament ended.

Freshmen Hannah Miller won her first match in the regional tournament with a 6-0, 6-0 dominating victory over Heller from St. Patrick. She picked up the possible state tournament #1 seed in the second round and lost.

Fellow Freshmen Kennedy Dunn also made her first appearance in a regional tournament and lost to Poe from Bourbon County in straight sets.

Despite the Cats not being able to pick up a victory in the second round, the first round success is an improvement in Coach David Tackett's first season returning to head the PC Tennis program.

Wildcats sweep Robertson County

Being heavy favorites, the Wildcats took care of business with a doubleheader sweep of Robertson County 20-0 and 10-1 with the second game being called because of darkness after five innings. The sweep gives Pendleton County an 8-7 record for the season.

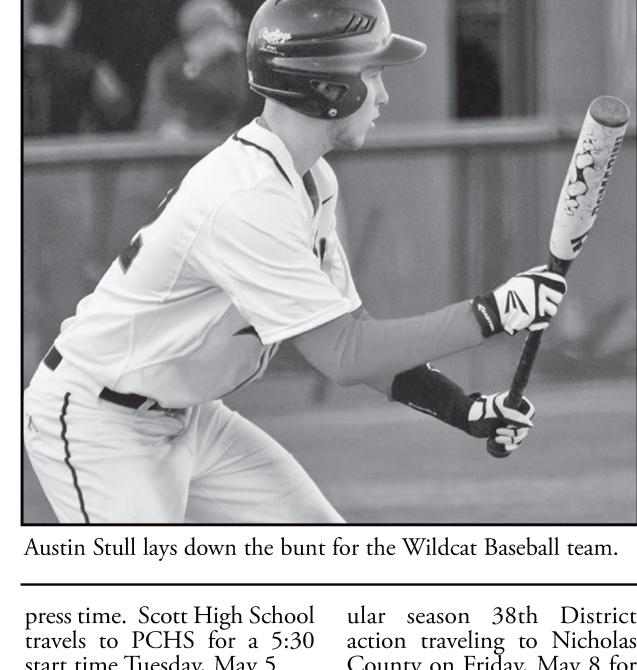

The sweep was important as it gave Pendleton County the second seed in the 38th District Tournament to be held at Harrison County beginning on May 18.

The doubleheader was the only action the Cats had in the week as their game versus Nicholas County was rained out and then rescheduled to Friday, May 8.

The beautiful weather but lack of games gave Varsity Coach Joe Dean the best stretch of practice time on the field he has had in his first season.

"We basically focused on defense," Coach Dean commented on what the team worked on.

Ladycats score lopsided win over Robertson

By Sam McClanahan, Reporter

The Ladycats softball team collected its second victory of the season last week as it claimed a lop-sided 23-13 win over Robertson County.

The Cats totaled 15 hits while also drawing 15 walks in their most impressive offensive showing of the season. Pendleton County exploded for eight runs in the bottom of the first and tacked on five more to take a commanding 13-1 advantage early in the contest. Senior Kaitlin Smith and junior Kylie Monfils each collected four hits apiece to lead the Ladycats.

"It was a solid team effort, and everyone played well," said head coach Steven Peed. "We hit the ball extremely well and played well enough defensively to get the win."

The Ladycats were shutout in both games of a doubleheader played on April 27 at Nicholas County.

Pendleton County was blanked 14-0 and 21-0 to a Nicholas County club that field's one of the premier players in the 10th Region, senior catcher Megan Bretz; who has signed to play at Bellermine.

"Megan is an outstanding player and arguably the best player in the region. We had a rough first inning and committed some costly errors that allowed them to pull ahead by a large margin" said Peed.

This week, the Ladycats travel south to take on district rival Harrison County in a doubleheader on May 4. The team will play host to St. Pat at 6 p.m. on May 6.
